Many Beets Now Arriving—

Sugar-making at the big factory of the Utah-Idaho company in this city is expected to commence one week from Monday, when the machinery will all be in tune and the bins full of beets. The beets are now arriving at the rate of five to eight carloads per day, and this week they are expected to come at double that rate.

Many are also coming by wagon.

Those arriving by rail are from Yon-calla, Sutherland and Oakland on the north, and from Medford and Central Point on the south. Each carload is of from 30 to 35 tons.

Harvest Salmagundi—

Friday evening, at the Baptist church, Mrs. Paul Kirker entertained the Anita class at a harvest salmagundi. After a very enjoyable evening the annual meeting of the class was held, at which time Miss Pauline Swacker was elected president, Loren

Reynolds vice-president, and Zatha Fitzgerald secretary-treasurer. Fruit jelly with whipped cream, cake and chocolate were served.

P. N. G. Club Entertained—

The Past Noble Grand club was entertained at the home of Mrs. Dora

Cleveland, on North Fifth street, Friday afternoon, in honor of Mrs. Cleveland's sisters, Mrs. Carter, of Parsons,

Kansas, and Mrs. Cleveland, of Concordia, Kansas, who are now visiting her. Refreshments were served and a general good time was the program.

Invited guests besides the club members were Mesdames Gray, Goettsehe, Van Leuven, Ingram, and Browne.

G. A. R.-W. R. C. Meeting—

For the first time in the history of General Logan post and corps the two organizations held their regular business meetings at the same hour in the W. O. W. hall Saturday afternoon, and in the future the monthly meeting of the post will be held at the same time the corps holds its semi-monthly session. The innovation was most heartily welcomed by both post and corps, and was celebrated with a picnic supper, which all present thoroughly enjoyed. Nearly 70

G. A. R. and W. R. C. members were present.

Ladies to Serve Club Luncheon—

The ladies of the Baptist church are to serve the luncheon Monday noon for the members of the Commercial club, in the assembly room at the club. The facilities at the club for serving these weekly luncheons have recently been improved through the installation of a large gas range in the kitchen. The ladies will intimate the range Monday, and it is expected that the meal they serve will sustain their well earned reputation in this line. Commercial club members and their invited guests are served at these Monday luncheons, and during the noon hour subjects bearing upon the welfare of the community are discussed.

A TRIP AROUND THE WORLD

If you have ever dreamed of a trip around the world and by a puncture in the wheel of fortune it never came true, you may be able to realize it next Friday evening, October 20, at a price within the reach of all.

Tickets for the outgoing steamers will be sold at the west entry of the Presbyterian church, stops of 20 minutes made at each country.

You may enjoy a trip to Alaska and be entertained in a miner's cabin at the home of Mrs. J. P. Truax.

If you care to take a jiriksha, you may visit the flowery kingdom at the home of Mrs. Arlie Heath, on North Third street, where dainty little Japanese ladies will be highly honored in serving you tea.

At the home of Mrs. Mary Browne, North Fifth street, you will reach Ireland, where you will be entertained by a little Irish wit, with "pratties and tay."

You will find yourself on the "Banks and braes o' Bonny Doon" at the home of Mrs. W. H. Flanagan, North Sixth street, where you will be entertained in Scottish style.

You need have no fear of making a trip to Germany, for the Deutsche-land, wholly unarmed, will take you to the home of Mrs. H. H. Allyn, Lawrence avenue, where you will be in the Fatherland and will be received by the hospitable German housewives.

After all your wanderings abroad you may return to your native land at the home of Mrs. Chas. Woodard, Kinney residence, where Uncle Sam and Columbia will give you a welcome home to the United States. 875

To Welcome Women's Special—

A delegation of Grants Pass women will leave on the morning train for Glendale, where they will join the Women's Special, and return with it to this city. Included in the local committee is Mrs. C. W. Kayser, formerly of Chicago, but now of near Merlin, who is acquainted with some members of the eastern party. Others from here who will go to Glendale are Mesdames J. C. Smith, C. H. Sampson, T. B. Cornell, A. H. Gunnell, Roy Bush, and M. L. Opdycke.

LOCAL HIGH LOSES

HARD-FOUGHT GAME

Ashland high defeated Grants Pass high, 6-0, in one of the bitterest fought games ever played on the local gridiron. The game was full of wrangles and dust. The one due to refereeing, the other to the intense heat.

Ashland secured her touchdown by taking advantage of a fumble by Grants Pass on their own 10-yard line. Several times Grants Pass came within striking distance of a touchdown, but lacked the real punch to put it over.

All the Grants Pass boys played a good game. Harmon, J. Bestul and Fallin made several good gains. The line of the local team was 50-per cent better than last Saturday.
